TOUR GUIDELINES

- Please more than anything on this tour, enjoy yourselves. This will be a once in a lifetime experience. The administration, students, and other personnel you meet will be extremely grateful for your willingness to visit them overseas and to conduct these camps and show your support.
- Board members: David Chavez has conducted many tours and events. Vicki Vaughan is a Camp Director. Sarina Mansour and Mia Chavez have attended a trip before, and Dennis Katungye is a Ugandan citizen and founding member of Crossover for Change, so please utilize these board members as a resource for any questions, input, or suggestions that you may have at any time during the tour. Please do not approach any other personnel or school administrators for this, as board members are very comfortable dealing with any type of situation. They are your “go-to guys”
- Tour members shall adhere to the performance standards to include the prohibition of offensive material. Members are restricted from offending racial, ethnic, or religious groups as well as references made that may offend followers of any faith, acts, gestures, or remarks that tend to mock physical handicaps or that ridicule the Ugandan Government, Military Services, and any individual or racial, religious, ethnic, national group or host country nationals. Tour members are also prohibited from behavior that would embarrass Crossover for Change and/or US Government (i.e. public displays of nakedness or drunkenness, destruction of government or personal property, etc.) Members shall begin all activities at the advertised time unless changed by Crossover for Change, board members, or the participating schools.
- Social Media – Due to world events, CFC asks that any Social Media posts about the tour be generic mentioning only the Country and be in the past tense. For example, “We had a great time in Uganda with the girls.” Do not mention cities, hotels, or specific locations.

Please ensure any geo-tagging is off and that there are no identifiers in posts/pics.

Crossover for Change should be mentioned in any social media post about the tour (the account @crossoverforchange should be tagged, and the short brand name of CFC can be used in any other capacity). Vicki Vaughan and Mia Chavez will help with any questions on posting.

- At some of your off-campus dinners, alcohol will be available. You are welcome to have a glass of wine or a beer with dinner but we ask you to drink responsibly. Any alcohol ordered will be your financial responsibility so please make arrangements when ordering as Crossover for Change cannot purchase alcohol.
- Lastly, we ask you to please be on time. Board members will go over the schedule the night before a tour day and will let you know of time/schedule changes during the tour.

Thank you so much for committing to make an impact. Please enjoy yourselves!

PLEASE KEEP IN MIND ALL SCHEDULES ARE TENTATIVE. ALL TIMES AND EVENTS MAY CHANGE AT SHORT NOTICE DUE TO MISSION REQUIREMENTS.
